

CARDEN CHESS

CHESS CLASS: The first half of the chess class is chess study through instructor-led demonstrations and activities, while the second half focuses on tournament play. The class is run by Success Chess School (SCS) - for more info about the chess program and curriculum, please visit the SCS website at www.SuccessChess.com.

WHEN & WHERE:

Starting September 21, 2011, we will meet on Wednesdays from 3:30 to 4:30 PM in room (TBA) until our last class on May 30, 2012.

Semester 1 (16 sessions): Wednesdays, September 21 to January 25, with no class on 11/23, 12/21, and 12/28.

Semester 2 (16 sessions): Wednesdays, February 1 to May 30, with no class on 2/22 and 4/11.

COST: $170 per semester, with discounts for registering for the full school year as well as signing up siblings. Also, financial aid is available for those with limited resources; please contact Success Chess for more info.

REGISTRATION & PAYMENT: To register for the Carden chess program, go to www.SuccessChess.com, select our 2011-2012 chess programs link, and pick Carden from our list of chess programs. Please register as early as possible since space is limited and all students registered at least one day before the first class will receive a free SCS T-shirt.

Children of Carden grades 1-8 and all chess experience levels are welcome. Students can range from absolute beginners to tournament savvy chess players.
