A Girl Scout Brownie Troop is being formed at Carden!

What is Girl Scouts?

Girl Scouts . . .

- Is for all girls.
- Welcomes girls from all backgrounds and teaches them to respect themselves and others.
- Promotes progressive and cooperative learning experiences, making life-affirming decisions, and responsible citizenship.
- Gives girls the experience of improving the quality of life for others, without regard for personal reward.
- Girls develop a commitment to community service that lasts a lifetime.
- Develops leadership and teamwork skills through specific activities, experiences with self-government, and the influence of positive adult role models.
- Builds life skills in a balanced program that includes activities in science, math, and technology, the out-of-doors, arts, and well-being.
- Explores contemporary issues, to support and assist girls in confronting the pressures of today's world.
- Provides adult leadership that is trained and prepared to guide and encourage girls to discover their talents and abilities while reinforcing their strengths in a supportive and safe environment.
- Is flexible.
- Provides a variety of ways for girls to participate: troops, interest groups, events, camps, and individual opportunities.
- Supports activities that encourage cross-cultural understanding.

Girl Scouts run through the academic school year. Meetings will be every other Friday from 3:15-4:15pm at Carden. Annual membership fee is $12.

We are excited to get our troop activities underway! If you are interested or have any questions, please contact:
